

Hello Everyone,

From one of our members:

It has been one hell of a year to say the least and it's just getting better!

If you recall, on May 20th, I emailed you a copy of the voluntary dismissal BOA did on my personal home after six long years.

Well on May 22nd, we had a long and tedious three hour trial where Deutsche Bank could not make their case stick.

The outcome "involuntary dismissal" by the court (directed verdict)! This is the second involuntary dismissal I have received this year both on rental properties.

Does it get any better than that?

Yes, it does!

Since this is their second bite at the apple, it's going to be pretty hard for them to come back again (we know they will), but this time there will be something waiting on them they will never see coming.

Remember that in all three cases the original, blue ink note was there in the file and the banks still lost or dismissed.

The note does not matter and don't let anyone tell you it does.

Most of the so called "defense attorneys" tell their clients that if they have the alleged original note it's game over.

That is simply not the case, and if you are told that, then fire the attorney as they don't know a thing about foreclosure defense.

This case was won without having to do much. We have been telling all our members at www.freeNclear.net this little secret for three years now and have just proven again how effective it is.

In two of the three, remember, BOA took a involuntary dismissal based on the threat of using this secret, it worked and it's so simple you wont believe it.

The problem is, it's so simple it's overlooked by most, if not all, defense attorneys.

Again, we cannot make this up, it would be impossible! You have the actual proof of our success in every email.

www.freeNclear.net members who follow the simple system are achieving results just like these on a regular basis, it's not some freak result.

It's common place!

The questions you should ask yourself are simple:

If the system at www.freeNclear.net works so well, why aren't I a member?

Can I really afford to take a chance on my own or using some other system out there that cannot come up with the proof like www.freeNclear.net on a regular basis?

Your answer.....NO YOU CAN'T!

If you are not using the www.freeNclear.net system to benefit you.....you are heading in the wrong direction.

In other words, going about any type of debt defense or offense without the specialized knowledge at www.freeNclear.net can be risky.
